KELLEY AND DAVIDSON CONVICTED OF MURDER

But Jury Recommends Them to Mercy of the Court, Which Means Life Imprisonment.

PALATKA, Fla., June 26.—(Special)—Following is the verdict in the Kelley-Davidson murder case:

"We, the jury, find defendants, James M. Kelley and D. M. Davidson, guilty of murder in the first degree, and recommend them to the mercy of the court. Thomas Murray, foreman."

The above verdict was rendered a few minutes before 11 o'clock this morning in the case of Kelley and Davidson, charged with the murder of Night Watchman W. C. Sellars of the Atlantic Coast Line at High Springs three years ago. The jury worked on the case until after 2 o'clock this morning, and retired worn out. They reported that a verdict had been reached at 10 o'clock, but the court sent them back to the room on account of the verdict not being properly made out, as no degree was mentioned.

The court room was crowded early by persons anxious to hear the verdict. The prisoners took the verdict calmly, Davidson's daughter being by his side when it was announced.

Court adjourned after receiving the verdict until 2 o'clock today, when motion will be made for a new trial. This motion will of course be denied, when an appeal will be taken to the Supreme Court.

Life Imprisonment at Hard Labor.

PALATKA, June 26.—7:30 p. m.—(Special)—Court reconvened at 5 o'clock this afternoon, when motion for a new trial in the Kelley and Davidson case was denied. A writ of error was filed and an appeal will be taken to the Supreme Court. The prisoners were sentenced to life imprisonment at hard labor.

When the men were asked what they had to say why sentence should not be passed upon them, Kelley said: "I accept the verdict of the jury, but so far as D. M. Davidson is concerned, he is as innocent of any connection with this crime as any man within the hearing of my voice."

The prisoners accepted the sentence as calmly as they received the verdict.

WEDNESDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

From Friday's Daily Sun.

PALATKA, June 24.—Notwithstanding that the famous case of the State of Florida vs. James M. Kelley and D. M. Davidson, charged with the murder of W. C. Sellars at High Springs, is coming to a close within the next two days, and that a majority of the evidence has been submitted, the case appears to still be a drawing card, and the court house is filled daily with spectators who appear anxious in either one way or another in the outcome of the trial.

Court opened Wednesday morning with the usual large crowd in attendance, and this crowd remained during both sessions, several refusing to go to their dinner in fear that they would lose their seats.

The court convened at 8:30 a. m., a half hour earlier than usual.

H. L. Thomas, first witness for the defense on Tuesday, was recalled by State for purpose of cross-examination.

Witness stated that he is a native of Augusta, Ga., is a machinist by trade, and was employed in the shops of the A. C. L. at High Springs for six or eight weeks prior to the killing of Sellars, and for several weeks after the homicide. Witness related practically the same story as related on the stand Tuesday. When asked by counsel for State if he had ever been convicted on any crime, witness replied that he had been convicted one time in Savannah, Ga., in 1906, for assault and battery upon the person of a negro.

Mrs. Smith Recalled.

Mrs. Fannie Smith was recalled. Stated that her husband was a machinist, and was employed in the shops of the A. C. L. at High Springs at the time of the killing of Sellars. Witness stated that she had resided in High Springs upon two occasions, the first time in 1903-4, the last time in 1906. She testified that her husband was also a jeweler, but denied that he was engaged in that business in Micanopy in 1906, when questioned on that point.

A. L. Perry resides at Adel, Ga. Resided in Waycross, Ga., in 1906. Was flagman on A. C. L. between Waycross and High Springs. Was in High Springs on the night Sellars was shot. Was standing on station platform with a number of men, among whom was Davidson. Two men, one of whom was Mr. Smith, came up and they appeared to be armed with guns. Smith called Davidson off, and the trio walked away. In a short time the guns were fired, and, believing that Davidson had been shot, witness ran to the restaurant and reported same. A few seconds later Davidson followed him into the restaurant, exclaiming that a man had been shot, and suggested that "we go and see if we can find the man who did it." Kelley was in the restaurant at the time witness rushed in.

J. W. Melvaine was in, High Springs the night of killing of Sellars. Was employed in Davidson's restaurant, and was in the restaurant, on duty, at the time the guns were fired. Kelley was in the restaurant, seated at a table, where he had ordered his supper. There were also several others in the restaurant, but witness could not remember all their names.

Immediately after the report of the guns someone rushed into the restaurant and reported that Davidson was killed. He was busy, and did not recognize the man. In a half minute Davidson entered, reported a man was shot, and he, with others, went to the scene. Witness then armed himself.

Upon cross-examination witness denied that he was walking on the railroad track previous to shooting on night Sellars was killed, or that he had on his person, or fired a gun. He also denied having been attired in a rain coat at any time that night. When asked if he did not leave High Springs for Archer the following day, witness replied that he did not, but remained in High Springs for about two months.

B. B. Hopson a Witness.

B. B. Hopson was in High Springs in March of this year. He had a conversation with Peter Burkhardt. Witness and Burkhardt were both employed by the Atlantic Coast Line. In conversation witness stated in substance that Burkhardt told him he "stood in" with the "big fish" of the railroad, and had a life-long job in black and white, and if he (witness) would get in, he (Burkhardt) could arrange matters all right. Burkhardt, so witness stated, wanted him to testify against Kelley. Burkhardt told witness that there would probably be others implicated, intimating Davidson, and asked witness how he and Davidson stood, when witness replied that he (witness) had "cut him out." Witness told Burkhardt he would see him later.

On cross-examination, witness stated that he and Burkhardt had at one time a little trouble, but it was not serious and was amicably adjusted.

Jim Cloud of High Springs said upon one occasion, after killing, Burkhardt approached him and asked him, what he was doing, to which witness replied that he was out of employment. Burkhardt then told him he would give him a job if he (witness) would do as he told him. Witness wanted to know the nature of the duties Burkhardt expected of him, when Burkhardt replied that friends of Kelley were going to try and prove that he (Kelley) was in Davidson's restaurant when the gun which killed Sellars was fired; and that he (Burkhardt) wanted witness to swear that he was in the restaurant at that time, and that Kelley was not there. Witness then turned and left Burkhardt.

When asked if he was in the restaurant at the time Burkhardt wanted him to swear he was, witness replied that he was not.

Dr. J. O. Collier, a dentist of High Springs, was next called, and related the subject of a conversation between himself and Burkhardt early in April of the present year in High Springs, in which Burkhardt told him that he had been reinstated by A. C. L. under agreement that he would tell the truth against Kelley and Davidson in this case. Burkhardt had previously lost his position on the railroad. Burkhardt also told witness that he had applied to Davidson for a job before returning to the railroad for employment, but was refused.

D. B. Taylor, manager of the High Springs Ice Manufacturing Co., related a similar story regarding what Burkhardt had told him.

Davidson's Daughter Testifies.

Mrs. Emma Edmondson, daughter of D. M. Davidson, one of the defendants, was placed on the stand. Witness was in High Springs on the night Sellars was killed, and heard the shots. She was seated on the front piazza of her father's home. J. H. Fields was seated with her. Fields related to witness that there was a "spotter" in town from Tampa, who had been sent to break up a lot of car stealing, and that he would not be surprised if there should be some trouble that night. When the report of the gun was heard Fields arose and exclaimed: "There! I expect somebody is shot!"

On cross-examination, witness stated that Fields came to her home about an hour and a half before the killing; that upon hearing report of the gun he left and went in the direction of the shooting; and that he returned to her home about thirty minutes later and informed her that Sellars had been shot.

Witness stated that she was engaged to be married to Fields at that time.

The court took a recess for a few moments, after which Walter A. McNally, bookkeeper for the El Perfecto Cigar Manf. Co., Palatka, was called. Witness resided in Savannah; knew D. W. Jernigan, one of the witnesses for the State. At this juncture Jernigan was produced before the witness, and was identified. Witness testified that Jernigan's reputation for truth and veracity at the time he (witness) was in Savannah was bad.

S. R. McDowell was a resident of High Springs at the time Sellars was shot, and was employed as a meat cutter by Davidson. Did not know Sellars personally, and did not know he had been shot until the following morning.

J. L. Shaw, a State witness, was recalled by request of defense, and questioned as to a conversation between himself and one C. C. Martin, in Lake City, regarding this case. When asked if he did not tell Martin upon the occasion referred to that some people in High Springs had it in for him (the witness) and that he intended to get even with Kelley and Davidson in this case. Witness replied that he did not.

Court took a recess until 2 o'clock p. m.

Afternoon Session.

The afternoon session was called

MRS. GOULD WINS HER SUIT FOR SEPARATION

Judge Vindicates Her of Improper Conduct---Gets Only $36,000 a Year Alimony.

NEW YORK, June 26.—After a trial which lasted nearly three weeks, Katherine Clemmons Gould obtained a legal separation from her husband, Howard Gould, third son of the late Jay Gould, by a decision of Justice Dowling in the Supreme Court yesterday.

With the exception of alimony, her victory was complete, but in this phase of the case the court decided that $36,000 a year was sufficient, although in her suit Mrs. Gould asked for $250,000. She has been receiving $25,000 a year from Mr. Gould, so that the amount fixed by the court is but a slight increase compared with the amount sued for.

It was in her vindication of charges of intoxication and her alleged relations with Dustin Farnum, the actor, that Mrs. Gould scored most strongly, for notwithstanding the long array of witnesses for Mr. Gould, who gave such testimony as to make Mrs. Gould appear at times as defendant rather than plaintiff, the court held that the alleged "intoxication" might have been due to excitement. As to Dustin Farnum, it was held that her association with him came after Mr. and Mrs. Gould separated and that the husband apparently made no objection.

Shearn Gets $17,000.

Immediately after the decision Delancy Nicoll, for Mr. Gould, asked for a sixty-day stay of judgment, and Clarence J. Shearn, for the plaintiff, was on his feet to object. He asked for an immediate judgment. Justice Dowling compromised by making the stay thirty days. Mr. Shearn asked for an extra allowance for counsel fees and the court gave him $2,000. This, together with the $19,000 allowed recently and the original allowance of $5,000, will bring his fees to $17,000, with an additional sum of $3,900 for expenses.

Friends of Mrs. Gould began to crowd about her as soon as the decision was announced. She had been somewhat lonely during the trial, but after the verdict she was kept busy receiving congratulations. As the decision was read she kept her head cast down and seemed plainly disappointed by the allowance. As soon as the case was closed, however, she shook hands warmly with Mr. Shearn and thanked him for his conduct of her case. Then she beamed upon her friends and even smiled upon the downcast trio of lawyers who had fought for her husband's interest.

Mrs. Gould Beaming.

Mr. Shearn, jubilant at the decision, was eager to discuss it.

"Judge Dowling's decision," he said, "is a sweeping and complete vindication of Mrs. Gould. That has been the object of all this bitter litigation. Mrs. Gould could have compromised for a fortune at any time, but would never consider for a moment anything but the opportunity of clearing her name in an open, public trial."

He added that either party in the suit could still bring action for absolute divorce, but that Mrs. Gould could not base such an action on charges involved in the suit just decided. Mrs. Gould's dower rights in Howard Gould's real estate amounts to $3,000,000, he said, and was unaffected by the separation. His client, he continued, was going to Virginia for a one rest.

Mrs. Gould issued the following statement:

"I am the happiest woman living tonight because I have been so completely vindicated before the entire world of all these horrible charges. Not one little pang shot through my heart at the smallness of the allowance—only supreme joy and the deepest gratitude. I send a thousand loving thanks to all who have helped me."

had been placed on the scales, he left immediately and went to Davidson's restaurant to get something to eat. This was about 11 o'clock, or as near as he could arrive at the hour. On his way to the restaurant he passed Davidson and two or three other men standing near the passenger depot platform, but thought nothing unusual of it, as people were always standing in the vicinity of the depot. He went to the restaurant, where a man by the name of Melvaine was on duty. He ordered something to eat. There were several men in the restaurant whom he noticed casually, but could not recall all their names. While he was seated at the table, a few moments after he came in, and was waiting for his supper, he heard two shots, and in an instant some person whom he did not recognize rushed in the door and exclaimed: "Boys, Shorty Davidson (referring to D. M. Davidson) is shot." There was some confusion, but in an instant Davidson arrived with the information that a man had been shot at the depot, and Davidson suggested that a crowd be organized to go down and see if they could not find the man who did the shooting. The witness, with others, immediately left the restaurant and went to the scene of the shooting, where he saw a man laying down. The man was wounded. He did not even know the man, and asked his name. He assisted in picking him up and placing him on a stretcher.

On cross-examination witness stated that he did not know Sellars, and

BIG BALL GAMES ALL DURING NEXT WEEK

DAVIS HAS NICE LIST BEFORE TAKING THE ROAD.

Saturday's Game Brought About by Citizens' Committee, Who Asked
That Mr. Davis Secure It.

From Saturday's Daily Sun:
Schedule for the Coming Week.
Monday—Oak Hills vs. Ocala.
Wednesday—Oak Hills vs. Hastings.
Thursday—Oak Hills vs. Hastings.
Saturday—Oak Hills vs. Palatka.
Hastings is virtually the same team that represents St. Augustine.

Commencing on Monday all fandom will have the opportunity of witnessing some extra games of baseball, for Manager Davis has secured almost a full slate the week before starting on the road.

The Ocala boys will arrive on the morning train Monday for the purpose of backing against the invincible Oak Hills. The Ocala boys have played a large number of games so far this season and they propose to make it interesting for us. The Ocala team is composed of a set of good players, and it has been rumored that they will secure some extra material to assist them on this occasion.

Hastings, or St. Augustine, will have a two-days' series to be played here commencing on Wednesday, and the fact that they have a long list of well-earned victories to their credit so far this season shows that they are interested and will give the boys a run for their money.

Palatka is to close the fun for the week, having been scheduled to play here on Saturday. This date was occasioned by the citizens' committee urging Manager Davis to secure a first-class club to play against on that particular date. The proposed celebration fell through, but Manager Davis will hold good his contract and play the Palatkans anyhow.

Gainesville's players were never more enthused, and with the proper "ginger" behind them they will not be afraid to tackle anything in the State League, and might venture into faster company if it was really thrown at them, for they know no such word as fail, and have adopted the by-word of "we dose 'em," and during the games of next week they will "show 'em how to play ball."

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will brace up the nerves, banish sick headache, prevent drowsiness and invigorate the whole system. Sold by all druggists.

HIDDEN DANGERS

Nature Gives Timely Warning That No Gainesville Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here is proof in the statement of a nearby resident:

Mrs. Elizabeth Moore, Madison avenue, Starke, Fla., says: "For some time I suffered from dull, nagging backaches and distressing pains through my loins. I could not rest well and arose in the morning feeling tired and worn out. My kidneys were sluggish and the secretions very unnatural. I at length procured Doan's Kidney Pills and they gave me the desired relief promptly. I have since been free from backaches and pains through my loins and my kidneys are normal. I am feeling better generally and give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit."

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING.

Mr. M. P. Hunter and Miss Fannie L. Mizelle the Contracting Parties.

MELROSE, June 25.—For the first time in many years the Melrose people had the pleasure of witnessing a church wedding on Wednesday morning, when Miss Fannie L. Mizelle was married to Mr. M. P. Hunter at the Baptist church, which had been most tastefully decorated by the bride's friends. Against the pulpit a screen of palmettos, white hydrangeas, white oleanders and ferns had been arranged, in front of which was a tall arch of ivy mixed with the same flowers, a large wedding bell of fragrant spider lilies on ivy foundation hanging from the center, large pine trees and palmettos filling the background.

Promptly at 11 o'clock the notes of the wedding march, played by Miss Nettie Huffman, announced the coming of the bridal party. Preceded by the ushers, H. Fowler and C. P. Huffman, Jr., came the bride's maids, Miss Mamie Robinson and Miss Nora Mizelle, and the groomsmen, Stafford Caldwell and Harry Jackson, followed by the bridal couple. Rev. B. R. Moseley met the party at the altar and performed the ceremony.

The church was crowded with the many friends of the bride, who, with her sister, Miss Kate, have been great favorites, a fact which was also demonstrated by the large number of handsome presents of silver, cut glass, etc., received by the bride.

After an elaborate collation at the Huffman House, partaken by about twenty-eight guests, the happy couple started for a short wedding trip to Suwannee Springs, residing afterwards at Jasper, where the groom is a prosperous merchant.

The weather clerk was most considerate, it being the first day without rain for a week—but it was noticed that something like a cloudburst of rice fell about the time the bridal party drove off.

Your correspondent would like to describe the handsome gowns of the bride and her maids, but being a mere man, is afraid he could not do justice to the occasion, hence will not attempt it.

Among the specially invited guests were Prof. and Mrs. Geo. M. Lynch, Gainesville; Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Curtis, Orange Heights; Misses Nora and Althea Mizelle, DeLand, and Stafford Caldwell, Jasper.

On Tuesday evening a reception and miscellaneous shower was tendered to the bride by about forty of her friends at the Huffman House, which was much enjoyed by all present.

THE WILSON STORE NOW STOCK COMPANY

J. D. GARDNER MANAGER OF NEW CORPORATION.

Leading Gainesville Citizens Are Interested in the Enterprise and Will Enlarge the Business.

From Saturday's Daily Sun:

The Wilson Dry Goods Company is the style of a new firm now operating in Gainesville, which is composed of a number of our leading citizens.

While it has been known that a change was contemplated it was not until the past week that the transaction was finally concluded. The new company takes charge of one of the oldest and best established dry goods stores of the city.

Manager J. D. Gardner, who was formerly with the Hyde Company, and Miss Bessie King, who has also been with the same concern as saleslady, both have stock in this enterprise, which bids fair to become one of the most important dry goods firms in East Florida.

They have made arrangements whereby they will have the upstairs in addition to what they are now using, and it will give them ample room for the present to meet the largely increasing demands in the dry goods line, which has fully doubled since this firm has secured a location on the square.

J. D. Gardner, his wife and also Miss Bessie King, who are interested in the company, have been identified with the trade here, and having catered so successfully to the wants of the buying public will be better enabled to anticipate their future wants in the dry goods line. In addition to the mammoth stock already carried, they will install other lines in their upstairs department, which enables them to have as large a stock as could be desired by an appreciative public.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner are thoroughly experienced in the dry goods business and have worked unceasingly since their residence here to promote the interests of the firm with which they were connected, and the trade now being enjoyed by them attests the popularity in which they are held by the citizens of this part of Florida. Miss Bessie King, who has long been identified with the Hyde Company, will soon leave to go with this new corporation, and the fact that she has handled the sales department in the ladies' ready-to-wear department is evidence sufficient that she thoroughly understands the wants of the people and will be found ever willing to serve them.

By reference to the articles of incorporation, which appear elsewhere, it will be seen that C. A. Colclough, J. D. Stringfellow, W. R. Thomas, J. D. Gardner and Miss Bessie L. King are the stock holders, and the company is now in operation at the old G. W. Hyde stand.

They will make numerous changes in the building and add new lines to their already extensive interests for the coming fall trade.

Men Past Fifty in Danger.

Men past middle life have found comfort and relief in Foley's Kidney Remedy, especially for enlarged prostate gland, which is very common among elderly men. L. E. Morris, Dexter, Ky., writes: "Up to a year ago my father suffered from kidney and bladder trouble and several physicians pronounced it enlargement of the prostate gland and advised an operation. On account of his age we were afraid he could not stand it and I recommended Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the first bottle relieved him, and after taking the second bottle he was no longer troubled with this complaint." J. W. McCollum & Co.

The Gainesville National Bank.

Elsewhere will be found the announcement of the condition of the Gainesville National Bank. The report shows that the deposits have increased to $509,978.56, a very remarkable showing for an institution so young and a guarantee of the regard in which the officers of the institution are held.

Many of our citizens are drifting towards Bright's disease by neglecting symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble which Foley's Kidney Remedy will quickly cure. J. W. McCollum & Co.

WILBURN—KELLEY.

Pretty Church Wedding at First Baptist Wednesday Morning.

From Thursday's Daily Sun:

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday morning at the First Baptist church when Mr. Hervey Robinson Wilburn was united in holy wedlock to Miss Bessie Kelley, the accomplished young daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Kelley, Rev. S. B. Rogers, formerly pastor of the church, officiating.

The house of worship had been beautifully decorated by friends of the young couple, and was draped in evergreens and moss from the entrances to the altar, the house being darkened to present an evening effect.

Rev. S. B. Rogers entered the church from the rear. The bride came in from the west aisle on the arm of her father, being preceded by the maid of honor, Miss Ida Mae McDonald, while the groom, accompanied by his best man, Mr. R. Y. Winters, entered from the east door. Miss Bessie Bunch entered from the west aisle and Mr. Forrest Kelley from the east aisle, and all met at the altar. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Mrs. T. Denby of Jacksonville, accompanied by Miss Christine Richards on the violin.

The couple met under the large arch and while the Rev. Rogers performed the ceremony a beautiful electrical effect was shown, which was arranged just over the arch bearing the names of "Kelley"—"Wilburn," and during the ceremony the light with the name of "Kelley" was kept burning, while as soon as the word was spoken pronouncing them man and wife it was switched off to "Wilburn."

Mr. H. M. Chitty and Mr. J. E. Murray acted as ushers.

The bride was beautifully attired in a traveling suit of champagne Rajah silk, while the groom wore the conventional black. Following the ceremony the happy pair left via the S. A. L. for Jacksonville to sail on the Clyde Line for Charleston. They will visit numerous places of interest before returning to their home in this city.

The groom is one of the head salesmen in the store of the Gainesville Hardware Company, having been a resident of Gainesville for the past two years. He has made a host of admiring friends who wish him much happiness.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Kelley, and has for a number of years been a resident of this city, identifying herself with the church and its work, and was one of the sweetest of the June brides Gainesville has had for a number of years.

The wedding presents consisted of various articles, and included nearly everything that will be required for the couple to start housekeeping, which shows their popularity with their admiring friends.

A brilliant close to a month which belongs pre-eminently to brides was the wedding of Miss Myrtle, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Washington Fennell, and Dr. George Selden Waldo.

The marriage was solemnized at the First Methodist church on Wednesday afternoon, June 23, at 2 o'clock.

The church had been tastefully decorated for this occasion and was beautiful in its simplicity. The chancel presented a very graceful and airy appearance with potted palms and ferns, while above it from the organ loft towered stately banana palms, the altar rail being festooned with ivy, and garlands of satin ribbons and smilax, caught up with white blossoms, enclosed the pews for the guests of honor. The windows having been previously darkened and the church brilliantly lighted, the crowning effect was added by a number of burning tapers gleaming from a pyramid of ferns within the chancel.

The organ was presided over by Mrs. T. Denby of Jacksonville, a life long friend from whom the bride received almost her entire musical education, and Miss Christine Richards, with her sweet accompaniments on the violin, added much to the music.

For twenty minutes preceding the ceremony the audience was favored by sweet selections from the musicians, "The Bridal Chorus," from "Rose Maiden," being rendered just before the entrance of the bridal party.

Just at the appointed hour to the familiar strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, entered the bridal party. First came the ushers, Messrs. K. H. Graham, W. T. Pound, J. C. Adkins and W. D. Sheppard, entering by both aisles. Following these in the left aisle was the maid-of-honor, Miss Alma, only sister of the bride, who was a vision of loveliness in pink crepe de chine with trimmings of embroidered net. She wore a becoming bonnet of pink chiffon with graceful streamers looped on the side, and carried pink carnations.

The flower girls, pretty little Misses Virginia Dale and Dorothy McClamrock, in dresses of dainty white, bearing baskets twined with smilax and ribbon and filled with pink rose petals, preceded the bride, who came in on the arm of her father, who gave her away, and they were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. W. M. Dale, who entered from a side door on the right.

The beautiful marriage service of the Methodist Church was performed by Rev. Francis R. Bridges in a very impressive manner. During the ceremony "Evening Star," from "Tannhauser," was softly played.

Mendelssohn's Wedding March being taken up again, the party left the church and repaired to their carriages, where they tarried a moment for congratulations.

The bride's gown, in semi-princess style, en train, was a lovely creation of white satin. The paneled front was handsomely braided with tiny satin puffs, studded with hand-embroidered roses of satin and chiffon, and from the bertha, which was similarly trimmed, fell a heavy silk fringe. She wore a picture hat of fluted valenciennes lace, with long willow plumes caught in a knot of chiffon and a buckle, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and asparagus fern with streamers of tulle.

The groom looked handsome in the conventional black suit.

The mother of the bride wore a costume of pearl gray silk tissue with white applique.

The popularity of the couple was attested by the large crowd that gathered at the station to express their best wishes, and by the numerous beautiful and costly presents they received.

The bride has lived here since childhood and is a great favorite in social circles. She is a talented musician, and since graduating in music several years ago has had charge of the organ of the First Methodist church.

While the groom has only lived in Gainesville for about two years, he has established for himself a fine practice in his profession of dentistry, and has proved quite an acquisition to society.

Dr. and Mrs. Waldo left on the 3:30 train over the A. C. L. for a short tour of the State, after which they will be at home to their friends at the Chapman cottage, 701 N. University street.

The bride's going-away costume was a tailored suit of straw-colored pongee trimmed in brown satin bands and every lace, with hat and parasol to match.

A Remarkable Memory.

Mr. W. P. Shettleworth of Evinston sent us a few days ago the roster of the Marion Dragoons, one of the companies made up in this county, and which enlisted early in the Civil War. This company served throughout the struggle in this State, participating in most of the Florida battles. The company was mustered out one hundred strong. Mr. Shettleworth sends us the name of every member of the company, and says that he can describe the color of every horse in the company and the position each one occupied when in line, and the possible age of each horse.

Mr. Macaulay gives some remarkable instances of good memories of certain historical characters, but we do not believe that he instances any more remarkable than that possessed by Mr. Shettleworth.—Ocala Banner.

"It cured me," or "It saved the life of my child," are the expressions you hear every day about Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This is true the world over where this valuable remedy has been introduced. No other medicine in use for diarrhoea or bowel complaints has received such general approval. The secret of the success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is that it cures. Sold by all druggists.

HOUSE DESTROYED THURSDAY.

Home of Walter McMillan Was Complete Loss by Fire.

The building occupied by Walter McMillan, in North Gainesville, known as the old Pardue place, was totally destroyed by fire Thursday afternoon, very few citizens of the city knowing of the occurrence until after the home had been burned.

The loss of all furniture and household effects to Mr. McMillan will fall heavily upon him, as it is understood that neither the house or goods were insured.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Subscribers to The Sun who are in arrears are urgently requested to make settlement without further delay.

Under the postal regulations we are prohibited from extending credit to subscribers for more than one year, and those who have not paid up to August, 1908, will be dropped from the list of subscribers during the next two weeks. The privilege of mailing the paper to subscribers who are in arrears for over a year is denied by the postal laws, and we have been notified to comply with this provision at once. If you fail to receive The Sun after the middle of July you will therefore know the reason therefor.

Do not wait to come to town to pay your subscription, but send the amount by mail at once. DO IT NOW.

After reading Senator Hlkins' speech one is almost convinced that if he doesn't get high protection coal won't over burn.

It would seem to be up to the farmer to save the country again this year by filling up those 277,000 empty freight cars.

There seems no hope that the Breathitt county (Ky.) feud will die for lack of material. It has engaged the acute sympathies of the Smith family.

The Sun is now going into twice as many homes in Alachua county as it was nine months ago; and names are being added to the subscription list at the rate of from 25 to 50 each week.

Hon. Ben. B. Lindsey, the famous Juvenile Court Judge of Colorado, "hands down" an opinion on the cigarette that ought to make people think: "I have been in the juvenile court nearly ten years, and in that time I have had to deal with thousands and thousands of boys who have disgraced themselves and their parents, and who have brought sorrow and misery into their lives; and I do not know of any one habit that is more responsible for the troubles of these boys than the vile cigarette habit."

Report has it that Col. Bryan and Senator LaFollette have formed a new independent party in Minnesota to wrest that State from Governor Johnson. Col. Bryan should not permit his jealousy of the popularity of such men as Governors Johnson of Minnesota and Harmon of Ohio to influence him in combining with independent Republicans to destroy their influence. The Democratic party has been exceedingly kind to Col. Bryan, and he should accord to others the privilege of seeking the nomination for the Presidency. He certainly can never hope to be elected President if he joins with independent Republicans to defeat such leaders as Johnson and Harmon.

THE KELLEY-DAVIDSON TRIAL.

The Sun gave the most complete report of the Kelley-Davidson murder trial, which was transferred from Gainesville to Palatka and completed in the latter city last Saturday, of any paper in the State. Even The Tampa Tribune's report of Thursday's proceedings of the court did not come up to that of The Sun, the former paper failing to give the testimony of the State's witnesses in rebuttal of testimony for defendants.

The defendants were represented by the best legal talent obtainable, and the verdict is a distinct victory for State Attorney Rivers in one of the hardest contested murder trials in the criminal annals of Florida. He handled the case in an able manner from beginning to end, being rendered valuable assistance by Col. Tom Palmer of Tampa, one of the very best lawyers in Florida, and the verdict of the jury is not only a victory for these gentlemen, but for the peace and morals, law and order of this section of Florida.

Judging from the statement of Kelley just before sentence was passed upon him Saturday evening, it is evident that the jury made no mistake in their verdict so far as he is concerned—except that they recommended him to the mercy of the court. Evidently he fired the fatal shot, else how could he know, as he says, that Davidson is innocent of any connection with the crime, and if he (Kelley) is alone responsible for this cold-blooded murder he owes it to Davidson and the public to make a clean breast of the whole affair.

This is the second time Kelley has been sentenced to life imprisonment for taking human life, having been granted a pardon for the first crime after serving only a few years of his sentence. Evidently the man has a mania for taking human life, for we cannot conceive of the motive which prompted him to so cruelly murder Sellars, whom he had never met personally and who had never harmed him.

We repeat, that it is strange that the jury recommended this man to mercy after being convinced that he committed this foul, cold-blooded murder.

AN UNWISE LAW.

Governor Gilchrist has approved an act of the recent Legislature which makes it unlawful for any person, persons, firm or corporation to pay the poll tax of another, and providing a penalty for any tax collector to receive payment for such poll tax from any person other than the one to whom the same is assessed. He has also approved the new primary election law, which requires candidates to make sworn statement of all expenditures in connection with their candidacy for nomination for office, and prohibiting candidates from contributing to any charitable institution or church, etc. It is one of the most drastic measures in many other respects that could be enacted, and if it does not result in the abolition of the primary system of nominating officers, then nothing else is calculated to do so. The new law will have to be seen to be "appreciated" by the voters.—Gainesville Sun.

Yes, and "the half has not been told." It was public policy and for the best interest of the taxpayers that as many poll taxes should be paid as possible. The reason is, that in our sawmills, turpentine farms, cross-tie camps, phosphate mines, railroads, telegraphs and other public industries, there are thousands of laborers who are assessed a poll tax only. These poll taxes constitute a portion of the school fund, which sorely needs every dollar it can get. This law knocks the school fund out of thousands of dollars at a time of its direst need.

All the talk about poll taxes being paid as a purchase price for votes is "buncombe" of the first water. When a man goes into a voter's booth with nobody there but himself, he votes independently and freely as he chooses. He may lie about how he voted when he comes out, but he has voted just as he pleased all the same and made the school fund one dollar richer "all the same."

Again, this is in direct conflict with an old law that has come down to us through the ages, namely, "that whatever a person may lawfully do himself, he may do through a duly authorized agent."

We believe that it is also in con-

Micanopy To Have Much Better Railroad Service

From Sunday's Daily Sun:

The citizens of Micanopy, or the committee appointed by them, have been successful in their efforts to have trains Nos 9 and 10 run via that place regularly.

The evidence and petitions prepared by the committee while in this city last Thursday afternoon had the effect of quick work, for a telegram was received here Saturday by Superintendent McArthur informing him to run this train via that point.

This change will prove highly satisfactory to a large number of people who visit Gainesville, and it will give the citizens of that fast growing little city the best railroad facilities they have enjoyed since the days of the Florida Southern.

Under the new change train No. 133 will not make the trip to Micanopy on its southbound journey, but will run via Micanopy and Tacoma on its way north, which will be known as No. 133, giving them almost a double daily service right to their own door.

In speaking with the reporter one of the members of the committee stated that they were sure they would receive some consideration at the hands of the Railroad Commission, but had respected the company's interests and had asked them for the change before being compelled to resort to this method of procedure.

Drs. H. L. Montgomery, J. D. Watkins and Mr. C. E. Melton were the committee who successfully engineered the new change, and commencing on next Monday the business man's special will run in and out of Micanopy on north and south bound trips, giving them a service that any place could well feel proud of.

Sea Island Cotton Was Dull and Featureless

SAVANNAH, Ga., June 26.—The market for Sea Island cotton was quiet to dull during the past week, with only a light demand and small offerings. Quotations remain without change.

Crop accounts continue favorable. The weather has been seasonably warm, with about sufficient rain on the average, although some localities could stand some more, while others have had a little too much. On the whole the Georgia crop gives excellent promise so far. Accounts from Florida are more mixed, but are fairly favorable in the main.

Sales for the week were 84 bales. The following prices were based on factors' quotations and are revised weekly on Fridays:

WILLISTON, June 25.—A beautiful home wedding was solemnized here Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, when Mr. Raymond Robinson and Miss Sadie Smith were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Gates. The parlor was artistically decorated with vines and cut flowers, and in the center of an arch of green hung an immense wedding bell under which the bride couple stood. The bride wore a beautiful princess dress of white sateen silk, trimmed with lace. Her veil was fastened with dainty white flowers and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses. After receiving the congratulations of friends and relatives delicious refreshments were served.

The couple were the recipients of numerous and costly gifts.

Beautifully and effectively Mendelssohn's Wedding March was rendered by Miss Martell Smith.

He Had Brass Knucks.

From Sunday's Daily Sun:

John Johnson, who was arrested with Justice Howard upon the charge of larceny, were both released from custody Saturday by Justice J. A. Carlisle on this charge. John Johnson, the negro who was guilty of having the knucks with him at the time of his arrest, was fined $200 and costs or four months in the county gang. He will have to take the latter course. Both are negroes.

HALL-GROFF.

Popular Young People of Newberry United in Wedlock.

NEWBERRY, June 26.—A beautiful home wedding was solemnized here Wednesday at high noon, when Mr. A. J. Hall, a very highly respected young man of Richmond, Va., and Miss Antha Groff, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mrs. E. A. Groff of Newberry, were united in holy matrimony.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. A. Yeates of High Springs.

The parlor was decorated with ferns and flowers, in the center of the room being an immense wedding bell of white daisies and ribbon, under which the bride couple stood. At the appointed hour, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, exquisitely rendered by Miss Sistrunk, the bridal party entered the parlor. The groomsmen and brides-maid entered the room from the right and took their places, followed by the bride and groom.

The bride wore a beautiful princess dress of white messeline satin, with an overdress of white silk brussels net beautifully trimmed in lace. She carried a bouquet of flowers. Her going-away dress was a tan-colored prunella coat suit with a pretty embroidered white waist with hat, veil and gloves to match.

After receiving the congratulations of friends and relatives a sumptuous dinner was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hall left for Washington, D. C. They will visit friends and relatives at Richmond, Va., and in North Carolina, and then return home to Newberry.

They were the recipients of a number of beautiful presents. The best wishes of a host of friends follow this popular young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Groff of Jacksonville and Mrs. G. M. Sistrunk, daughter and sons, of Starke, were among the out-of-town guests.

NEW RURAL ROUTES FOR BELL ON FIRST

EXAMINATIONS HELD IN THIS CITY SATURDAY MORNING.

Starling and Martin Have Received Appointments and New Service to Commence at Once.

From Sunday's Daily Sun:

The town of Bell, one of the hustling and industrious sections of Western Alachua, will have two new rural routes leading from that point on and after July 1st, by order of the Post-office Department at Washington.

An examination for this purpose was held in Gainesville on Saturday, when H. Starling and Albert Martin, two of the citizens of that section, were here and took the examination for the positions of carriers.

This is the first movement for this new service west of Newberry, and it will very likely spread to other portions after it has been inaugurated at that place.

Micanopy will have another new route established there next week, which also commences on July 1st, and this will run in a southerly direction, returning through the Fleming section, giving the citizens along this route a new and satisfactory service, for they will be greatly benefited in receiving their mail and save a number of trips to the city. R. E. Arnow has been appointed as carrier for this route.

BONNIE MELROSE.

MELROSE, June 26.—A union picnic will be held by the Sunday schools of Melrose, Waldo and Orange Heights at Earleton on Friday, July 2nd. Everybody cordially invited to come.

The steamer Santa Fe has been away since Thursday, being at work spraying the water hyacinths with the Government spray used on the St. Johns river.

Dr. W. H. Lee has received his diploma from the State Dental Board and has opened an office in Lake Butler.

Mrs. J. Moore of Jacksonville is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. L. M. Baldwin. Other visitors in town during the week were Rev. C. B. Hedrick, Starke; E. P. Thagard, Ocala, and J. C. Adkins, Gainesville.

Quite a party came over from Earleton and Waldo on Mr. Boring's launch on Friday night, enjoying the beautiful moon light on the lake.

Pumping Water for Cattle.

J. H. Holly of Arredondo was a visitor here yesterday. He states that he has never seen it so dry in his section as at the present time, and that all of the stockmen of that section are having to supply water for their stock. Quite a number of the people have irrigating plants and are compelled to get their supply of water from deep wells and are using gasoline engines for the pumping of water. All of the ponds are drying up and it is dangerous for stock to attempt to get water from them.

did not know that he was working for the railroad. He was comparatively a stranger in High Springs himself, and knew very few people there. To his knowledge, that was the first time he had ever seen Sellars.

The defendant stoutly denied that he had ever told any person (referring to questions as to testimony given by previous witnesses for the State) that he killed Sellars, and denounced as absolutely false any statement which would tend to indicate that he did so. Regarding the testimony of one D. W. Jernigan, a State witness of Savannah who stated that on two or three occasions Kelley had told him the story of the homicide, the defendant witness declared that no such conversation between himself and Jernigan ever occurred, as alleged by the witness, Jernigan. He admitted that he had known Jernigan for a number of years, and that upon two occasions, while he was in Jacksonville, he did visit Jernigan, but on both occasions he had a companion with him. He did have a conversation at each time regarding the Sellars homicide, but on both occasions he told Jernigan that he knew nothing about it, only that it was the general supposition around High Springs that some party or parties had followed him from Tampa to High Springs and "fixed the job," as Sellars had been in some difficulties in Tampa. He related to Jernigan that he did not know Sellars at the time of the homicide, but that he had heard that he had been in High Springs only a short time—in fact, not sufficiently long to make any enemies strong enough to take revenge with his life. Kelley stated that he had ever since his arrest been trying to locate this companion, but had not been able to do so.

Witness testified that he remained in High Springs until December after the killing of Sellars in August of the same year, all of the time of which he was in the employ of the Atlantic Coast Line. From High Springs he went to Savannah to see his wife and son, where he was subsequently retained by the railroad. In November, 1907, he secured a thirty-day leave of absence, and was en route for a little outing on the East Coast when arrested in Jacksonville on the charge of the murder of W. C. Sellars.

Asked by the attorney for the State if he had ever been convicted of a crime, defendant witness replied that he had been convicted of the crime of murder in an open combat in the day-time, but that he had received an unconditional pardon, after serving some time in prison.

D. M. Davidson Testifies.

D. M. Davidson, indicted jointly with James M. Kelley for the murder of Sellars, next took the stand.

Davidson testified that on the night of the killing he left his home and came down town, proceeding to the restaurant he was conducting at the time. He met Mr. Sellars on the platform, but did not know him at that time. This was on the platform, or near the platform, of the passenger station of the Atlantic Coast Line. Sellars accosted him, asking him if he (Davidson) couldn't direct him to Dr. Rankin. Witness gave him the desired information and went on, thinking nothing more about it. About 11 o'clock he was again in the vicinity of the platform, which was conveniently near his restaurant, where he met and had a brief chat with several men, employees of the railroad. While he was there Sellars and J. M. Smith came up, and appeared to be a little bit restless. They called him, and one of the men (he had forgotten which) told him that there was a mysterious movement of some men at the depot, and they feared trouble. Witness suggested that it might be someone who was trying to break in the depot for robbery, upon which suggestion Sellars asked him for advice. Witness suggested that as there were several tables, boxes, etc., in the office they could go in there and conceal themselves, and if there was anything like a "deal" on to rob the freight house, they (Sellars and Smith) would have the advantage, and could easily "hold them up," or words to that effect.

While the three men (Davidson, Sellars and Smith) were together talking over the situation, someone passed. The witness' attention was called to the passing of this man, and Davidson said, "That is a negro," to which all agreed. A short time later, while Davidson, Sellars and Smith were still together, but moving around, the shot was fired which penetrated Sellars' side and caused his death.

The three men were standing close together when the shot was fired, and the witness described the respective positions of the men. Sellars was in a position where he was exposed most prominently to the contents of the gun; Smith at the time of the shot was between the witness and Sellars, but as soon as the shot was fired, or within a very short time afterwards, witness explained to the jury how it was that Smith worked him so quickly into a hazardous position, when he cried: "Smith, for God's sake don't shoot me."

Smith had a gun. It was a shot gun, and he had it in his right hand, barrel pointed downward, when the shot from behind the flat car was fired. Smith endeavored to get his gun leveled in position to fire, and in the meantime, the defendant witness having gone to the assistance of Sellars, had placed himself in a position between Sellars and himself, and in almost direct range of Smith's gun. Fearing that in this excitement Smith might shoot him, he cautioned him in the manner as stated.

The defendant witness stoutly denied the statement of all witnesses implicating him in this homicide. He denied all inferences of witnesses that he had been connected with the homicide in any way, and denounced the testimony of all witnesses to the contrary as absolutely false, and without foundation in fact. He was particularly severe on some witnesses to whom he stated that he had been especially kind on occasions when these witnesses needed financial assistance, which he gladly granted on account of personal feeling and friendship.

The defendant witness stated that he was for seven or eight years connected with the Atlantic Coast Line in the capacity of special agent, but that he "lost out" about 1905, with a friend who held a higher position. It was no fault of either he or his friend that he "lost out." He was filling a responsible and conservative position with the Atlantic Coast Line, and no reason was assigned for his dismissal.

Davidson was subjected to a rigid cross-examination by the prosecution, but he was firm in his original statement. He did say, in reply to a question as to whether he was ever convicted of any crime, that he had pleaded guilty one time to selling liquor in Alachua county without a license, but added that when a defendant was arraigned upon this charge that it was cheaper to plead guilty and pay the fine and costs of the court than to have the expenses of a lawyer.

Sellars' Relatives Present.

During the morning session Mrs. Mattie Sellars, widow of W. C. Sellars, and L. O. Sellars, brother of the murdered man, appeared in court, and remained during the entire day's session. Mrs. Sellars is a petite little blonde, small in stature but with a most attractive appearance. She is blessed with a generous flow of waving chestnut hair and a pair of blue eyes which are very becoming, and she attracted considerable attention as she entered the court room with her brother, L. O. Sellars, and took her seat immediately in the rear of Col. Tom Palmer, who is assisting State Attorney Rivers in the prosecution. The court room was crowded, but many chairs were volunteered to the little lady and her escort as they entered the rail. Mrs. Sellars appeared to manifest a deep interest in the proceedings.

At the conclusion of Davidson's testimony the defense rested, and the court adjourned until 8:30 Thursday morning, when evidence in rebuttal on the part of the State will be taken up.

THURSDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

From Saturday's Daily Sun:

Following is the concluding testimony in the Kelley-Davidson case, offered in rebuttal by the State of evidence given by witnesses for the defense, as summarized by Miss Lois Hale, court stenographer, from her official notes:

R. L. Kennerly testified in rebuttal as follows: Was sheriff of Putnam county; held the position of deputy sheriff of Putnam county in June, July and August, 1906; knows Jim Grant; arrested him in June, 1906, and he was sent to the county prison—sentenced June 25th, 1906, for three months—the same Jim Grant who was brought into the court room and identified by one of the defendant's witnesses.

Mrs. Mattie M. Sellars, widow of W. C. Sellars, testified that she was married to W. C. Sellars in July, 1905, and lived at 206 Ross avenue, Tampa, Fla.; that Mr. Sellars had not, just before he came to High Springs, or at any other time, been engaged in any personal difficulties, or personal trouble of any kind, with anyone. That her husband had not been engaged in numerous shooting scrapes around Tampa, at any time previous to his visit to High Springs.

S. H. Wienges Testified

That he was clerk of the circuit court of Alachua county. Left Gainesville on last Friday; that no subpoena was issued for Mrs. Fannie Smith, who testified as a witness in this case for the defendants, prior to the 8th day of May, 1909.

Walter Andrews

Testified that he lives in Palatka, Fla., knows D. W. Jernigan. Is in the United States postal service; made the acquaintance of Jernigan about 15 years ago in Savannah, Ga. Witness stated that he was only there for about two weeks at that time; knew the general reputation of D. W. Jernigan for truth and veracity in the community to be good; and would believe him on oath.

Joe E. Burns

Testified that he lived in Palatka; came from Savannah, Ga., here; knew D. W. Jernigan since February, 1907; knew him when he was on the police force in Savannah, Ga., at the union station; knew Jernigan's reputation for truth and veracity to be good.

Jesse Greek

Lives in Jacksonville; holds a position there on police force; has held such position for about fifteen years; knows D. W. Jernigan, knew him while he lived in Jacksonville; knows the general reputation of D. W. Jernigan for truth and veracity to be good.

On cross-examination by counsel for defense witness said when he knew D. W. Jernigan in Jacksonville he (Jernigan) was in the railroad service there—special agent in the yards there—and that during the time that he was there Jernigan was arrested for larceny and carried back to Savannah.

J. L. Grimes

Testified that he was brought to court as defendants' witness; knows Pete Burkhart, who testified here. Knows his general reputation in the community where he lives, and that reputation is all right. Would believe him on oath.

G. W. Easterlin

Testified in rebuttal that he lives in High Springs; was on the coroner's jury in this case; knows Pete Burkhart—has known him for seven or eight years—knows his general reputation in the community in which he lives for truth and veracity, and that reputation is good.

Cross-Examination by Defense.

Q. "I will ask you, if it is not generally believed that Mr. Burkhart swore falsely before the coroner's jury in this case?"

A. "I cannot say what he swore to, but we did not get anything out of him."

Q. "Is it generally believed that Mr. Burkhart swore falsely before the coroner's jury in High Springs?"

A. "Of course."

Jesse Mizelle

Lives in High Springs, has lived there seven or eight years; was on the coroner's jury that held the inquest over the body of W. C. Sellars; was brought to court here as defendants' witness; knows Pete Burkhart—known him for three years—knows his general reputation in the community where he lives—good—from that reputation witness would believe him on his oath. Knows J. L. O'Neal, called "Buck" O'Neal; knows his reputation for truth and veracity; and that reputation is bad; from that reputation witness would not believe him on oath; knows Jim Cloud, who is a witness here; known him for five years; known his general reputation in that community where he lives for truth and veracity, and that reputation is bad; from that reputation witness would not believe him on oath.

Cross-examination by defense—Witness did not remember that he had ever heard anyone in High Springs say that they believed that Pete Burkhart was a liar or that he told falsehoods; said he had not said so.

Q. "Don't you know, or believe, that he swore to falsehoods in High Springs?"

A. "He has never been sworn before me."

Q. "Were you not on the coroner's jury that investigated the Sellars case?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Didn't he swear before you?"

A. "Yes, and I will take that back. I was on the coroner's jury, and they had him up."

Witness had not heard other people say that they believed that he swore to falsehoods.

J. H. Fields, in rebuttal, stated that he knew Mr. Davidson's daughter, Miss Emma Davidson, now Mrs. Edmundson. At the time of the killing of Mr. Sellars, witness did not consider that he was engaged to be married to her—"would not consider it that way."

Q. "Answer the question."

A. "No."

Q. "Have you ever been engaged to her?"

A. "You might say."

Q. "You had before?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "But weren't you at that time?"

A. "No."

PALATKA, June 24.—(Special)—

Taking of evidence in the Kelley-Davidson murder case was concluded today by the examination of five witnesses for the State in rebuttal of evidence given for the defense.

The opening argument for the State was by Col. Tom Palmer of Tampa, who spoke for three hours, followed by Judge Syd L. Carter, Col. J. N. Stripling and E. Noble Calhoun for the defense. Judge Carter and Col. Stripling both made exceptionally able arguments, which seemed to visibly impress the jury.

The case will be turned over to the jury after arguments by Hon. Robert W. Davis for defense and Solicitor Rivers for the State, and it is thought that the case will be submitted to the jury before the noon recess tomorrow.

PALATKA, June 25.—8 p. m.—

(Special)—After strong and eloquent appeals by attorneys for the State and defense, and Judge Willis' charge as to the law in the case, the fate of James Kelley and D. M. Davidson, on trial for the past five days charged with the murder of W. C. Sellars at High Springs three years ago, now rests with the jury of twelve men who were selected to render a verdict in the case.

Hon. Robert W. Davis made the closing argument for the defendants this morning, speaking for three hours, and it was one of the strongest appeals ever made to a jury by an attorney who realized that possibly the lives of two men depended upon his defense of them. Those who have heard Col. Davis address a jury in murder cases can possibly appreciate the force and brilliancy of his argument when it is said that his speech today was the best he has ever made before a jury upon similar occasions. His speech visibly effected the jury and spectators, and if his clients are not acquitted it will be through no fault of this noted lawyer.

Solicitor Rivers Closes.

State Attorney J. M. Rivers made the closing argument for the Commonwealth and final one in the case. It can be truthfully said that he has handled the State's side of the case in a masterly manner throughout the trial and his appeal to the jury for justice to the dead was a powerful one. He reviewed the evidence in detail, and set forth the salient points against the defendants with effective force.

The jury had not returned a verdict up to adjournment of court tonight, when a recess was taken until 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

There is considerable speculation as to what the verdict will be.

Broke Arm by Fall.

Julia, the little three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kennard of South Gainesville, had the misfortune Saturday to fall from a buggy and break her arm. The little one was playing in the vehicle, which was stationed under the shed, and in some manner became overbalanced and fell, with the above result. A physician was summoned and she is now resting as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Gainesville Section Again Coming to the Front With Two More Candidates Close to Miss Goode.

The Co-Operative contest is proving very profitable to all of the merchants and business houses that have entered the combine and they are daily adding new customers to their lists. It is expected that after Monday, when the new train service is inaugurated from the western part of the county will reap a rich harvest from that section.

There is no change in the positions since the last count, except in the Western section, but some extra heavy votes have been cast during the past two days, and everything points to some very heavy voting before the next count, for it is rumored that some of the candidates have secured extra large votes and are holding them until next week.

If you have not already sent for The Sun list in your respective locality, do so and get busy, for it will assist you greatly in determining who are already subscribers and enable you to approach the proper ones for their subscriptions; besides, it will show you who is in arrears for the paper.

DUTY ON PINEAPPLES INCREASED BY SENATE

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Pineapples were again brought into prominence before the Senate yesterday. The duty on pineapples in bulk was fixed by the House at $5 a thousand, which was reduced by the Senate committee on finance to $7. Mr. Tallaferra of Florida sought to restore the House rate. Saying that pineapples could be imported from Cuba at 50 cents a thousand cheaper than they could be grown in the United States even with the $5 duty added, Mr. Tallaferra disclaimed any desire for a protective duty. He wanted this duty, he said, because it would increase the revenue.

He said that the duty on pineapples would be doubled so that, as even the importation from Cuba would not be reduced, we would get $200,000 in the way of duties instead of $100,000 as now.

Mr. Tallaferra yielded, as he said, the floor. "To those gentlemen who propose to speak for the canners." He looked towards the two Maryland Senators, who were waiting to address the Senate, and succeeded in getting a "rise" from both of them. In rather indignant tones Mr. Rayner asserted that he should not appear for the canners but for the consumers. Mr. Smith said he spoke for no special interest, but for humanity.

Mr. Rayner criticized the rate of one-half of one cent a pound on pineapples when in crates or barrels, involved in the amendment of the Florida Senator as being equal to 32 cents a crate instead of 14 cents under the Dingley law. Mr. Rayner said he would prove Mr. Tallaferra was advocating a high protective tariff.

"I hope the Senator will offer his proof in this chamber or say no more about it," said Mr. Tallaferra.

Quoting from a letter from the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Shippers' Protective Association, in support of the increased rate, Mr. Rayner showed that it was asked for as a protective duty.

Insisting that a higher rate of duty was needed to make the pineapple industry prosperous in Florida, Mr. Fletcher of Florida became involved in the controversy. He had hesitated to place his advocacy of the higher duty on any ground except that of a revenue producer, and Mr. Dixon and Mr. Jones suggested that he was losing their support because they were only inclined to vote for his amendment as a policy of protecting an American industry.

Mr. Fletcher's Position.

"I am going to place the matter before the Senate upon its merits," responded Mr. Fletcher, "and any Senator can figure it for himself whether he votes for it for one reason or for another reason."

Opposing what he regarded as the "enormous increase of duty on pineapples," Senator Root referred to the relations of this country with Cuba, saying they were such as should influence the national policy in the laying of tariff duties on Cuban products.

Under the treaty of 1903, he said, the exports of this country to Cuba had increased from $27,000,000 to $47,000,000 or 84 per cent in five years, and he contended that we should reciprocate such liberal purchases of our products by giving the Cubans such advantages as we can on their exportations to this country.

Our imports from Cuba, Mr. Root said, had increased in those years but 9 per cent, and he thought that was a fair showing of increase in trade in favor of this country. To enter into a treaty with Cuba granting 20 per cent preference to imports from Cuba and then raise the duty on such an article as pineapples he thought was not fairly dealing with the island.

Mr. Warren asked Mr. Root whether he expected the United States would again send an army to Cuba if needed without requiring the island to pay the expenses.

Saying he could not determine such a question in advance, Mr. Root declared that the protective advantage of our relations with Cuba far outweighed any expense that the United States had been put to in connection with the island.

"Did Cuba give us the preference when she bought $2,000,000 or $3,000,000 worth of rifles from Germany?" inquired Mr. Scott.

Mr. Root said that the Cubans had been accustomed to buying from Europe and he thought the country was doing very well in increasing its trade with the United States to the extent that it was doing.

"We must keep Cuba free, independent and peaceful, or else we shall face the alternative of letting Cuba go to some foreign power, which we never can permit or to take it ourselves, which I hope we never shall do," he declared.

By 34 to 30, Senator Tallaferra's amendment was adopted. This was a defeat for the finance committee.

The amendment provides a duty of $8 per thousand on pineapples or a half a cent per pound in bulk.

OCALA WINS GAME.

Harry Denton of Oak Hills Makes a Home Run for Cordele.

From Saturday's Daily Sun:

In the second game of the series between Ocala and Cordele in the former city yesterday, Ocala won by the score of 2 to 1, which must have been a pretty game from the spectator's viewpoint.

It is understood that the run made for Cordele was made by Denton, who is playing with the Georgia team for these three games, and that he succeeded in placing the ball over the fence.

THE NEW WESTERN SCHEDULE MONDAY

CITRA TRAIN CHANGED TO RUN FROM WILCOX.

The First Direct Western Train for Gainesville Which Allows Them to Return the Same Day.

From Saturday's Daily Sun:

The new schedule effective on next Monday over the A. C. L. railway will give the citizens of the western part of the county an opportunity to visit the city and return home the same day.

What has been known as the Citra train for a number of years, running between that point and High Springs, will be changed to run from Wilcox to Citra. This train will be known as Nos. 138, north bound, and 139 south bound.

Train No. 139 will leave Wilcox at 6:45 a. m., arriving Gainesville at 8:50 in the morning, proceeding on to Citra, arriving there at 11:25, and allowing a lay-over until 3 p. m., when it again starts on the return trip as No. 138. It will leave Citra at 3 p. m., arrive Gainesville at 5:58, and reach its destination at 8:20 p. m.

There will be no change in the arrival and departure of the other four passenger trains, Nos. 39 and 40 and Nos. 9 and 10, which will be run the same as heretofore, but the Citra train will call in and out at Micanopy as it has done heretofore.

Under this new arrangement Gainesville will enjoy the best schedule that it has ever had at the hands of the railroad people, and this will very probably prove a valuable change for the business interests of Gainesville. For the past few years a large part of the people of the western part of Alachua county have been going to Jacksonville to do their shopping, owing to the convenience of the schedules, but this will make the change that has long been desired.

Some efforts should be made by the merchants to advertise a free trip over the new schedule, to get better acquainted with the neighbors from the western part of the county.

CHINESE MURDER IS STILL GREAT MYSTERY

Chung Sing, Who Confessed to Seeing Miss Elsie Sigel Dead on Bed, Given a Rest.

NEW YORK, June 25.—With all tangible indications of any near approach to a solution of the murder of Elsie Sigel narrowing to the vanishing point, whereas a fresh crop of rumors springs with each hour of added uncertainty, another day of the threefold investigation by police, detectives and district attorney, ended last night. Chung Sing, after thirty-four hours of steady grilling, but with one intermission for sleep, had a day of rest at last. Either because the police despair of squeezing more information out of him, or because they believe that if he is left for a space to forget the details of his first answers he may entangle himself in more contradictions, they did not question him yesterday.

The same stream of hopeful, but unsatisfactory clues kept pouring in from Chinatown itself, from Newark and the suburbs, and even from the cities of the Pacific Coast, but as far as the police here could determine last night, none of them proved to have any substantial basis.

A rumor that a war between the Tongs was impending because of Chu Gains' revelations to the police found momentary confirmation in the arrest late yesterday of a lone Chinaman with a revolver tucked under his blouse, but the police said last night that they were unable to connect him with any concerted plan for an uprising.

The one bit of authentic information which turned up yesterday did not greatly forward the search for Leon Ling.

This information came from Chu Gain, who explained that the $260 advanced to Chung Sing, Leon Ling's room-mate, did not come out of his private purse. The police have been much puzzled about this loan, because its existence involved a contradiction. Why should Chu Gain, who lived in terror of his rival, Leon Ling, lend money to that rival's known intimate? Chu Gain explained yesterday that the money was part of a loan fund belonging to the Chinese Empire Reform Association, of which he is treasurer. The society exists, among other things, for the purpose of supplying funds to its members who are entitled to draw on the treasury in proportion to the amount of their paid up dues. Whenever there is any question as to which of two rival bidders shall get a loan, the matter is decided in favor of the bidder of the highest interest. Chung Sing, it was explained, had put in his bid as a member, and as there was no one offering a higher profit to the society, he was entitled to the $260 and got it.

Governor Smith Fires Railroad Commissioner

ATLANTA, Ga., June 25.—Governor Hoke Smith, who retires from office on Saturday, yesterday suspended from office Chairman S. G. McLendon of the State Railroad Commission because of McLendon's recent decision in refusing to order State railroads to reduce rates between Savannah and Atlanta, known as the "port rates."

A feature of the suspension is that Mr. McLendon was a successor of Joseph M. Brown, now Governor-elect, who succeeds Governor Smith on Saturday and whom Governor Smith dismissed from his position as railroad commissioner about two years ago.

Governor Smith said that McLendon was suspended because he was opposing the platform upon which the Governor was elected and was pursuing a course which the Governor thought detrimental to the interests of the State. He will send a special message to the Legislature today giving the reasons for the suspension.

The "port rates" controversy was for lower rates on iron and coffee. Several Atlanta firms petitioned for rate reduction, claiming that other cities, particularly Nashville, enjoyed lower rates from Georgia ports than did Atlanta. In his opinion deciding against this petition, Mr. McLendon said that to grant the lower rates would be equivalent to interfering with interstate commerce, which the State railroad commission had no right to do.

A Correction.

From Friday's Daily Sun:

The Sun was misinformed Thursday when it stated that Mrs. Fielding, mother of Col. Thos. W. Fielding, had died at her home at Lake Butler. The lady, who is in her sixty-eighth year, was seriously ill, however, and her son was summoned to her bedside by telegram. He returned to the city last night, and reports that while she is still confined to her bed, the patient is considerably improved, and strong hopes are entertained for her recovery. This will be pleasing news to his many friends here and elsewhere.

Stomach Troubles.

Many remarkable cures of stomach troubles have been effected by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One man who had spent over two thousand dollars for medicine and treatment was cured by a few boxes of these tablets. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at all drug stores.

Colds that hang on weaken the constitution and develop into consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar cures persistent coughs that refuse to yield to other treatment. Do not experiment with untried remedies as delay may result in your cold settling on your lungs. J. W. McCollum & Co.

HUMORS IN THE BLOOD

When the blood is pure and healthy the skin will be soft, smooth and free from all eruptions or disease, but when the circulation becomes infected with any unhealthy humor the effect is shown by eruptions, pimples, boils, or some more definitely marked skin disorder, such as Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, etc.

Humors get into the blood, usually because of an inactive or sluggish condition of those members whose duty it is to collect and carry off the waste matter and refuse of the system. This unhealthy matter is left to sour and ferment and be absorbed into the blood, and soon the circulation becomes filled with an acrid, irritating humor.

The blood then, instead of performing its natural duty of nourishing the skin, regulating its temperature and preserving its uniform softness, pliability and healthfulness, irritates and diseases the delicate tissues and fibers around the pores and glands and produces some of the various forms of skin eruption or disease.

The cause of all skin affections can be traced to some kind of humor in the blood. Healthy cuticles are only possible where the circulation is pure; and therefore the cure of any skin disease can only come from a thorough cleansing of this vital fluid. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., cannot cure. True such treatment relieves some of the itching and discomfort, helps to reduce inflammation, and aids in keeping the affected parts clean, but it does not reach the blood, where the real cause is located, and at best can be only palliative and soothing.

S. S. S. cures skin diseases of every character and kind because it purifies and cleanses the blood. It goes down into the circulation and removes the humors that are causing the trouble, builds up the weak, acrid blood, and completely cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, pimples, boils, and all other skin diseases and affections. S. S. S. is made entirely of roots and herbs, a safe vegetable remedy.

HOWARD REARRESTED ON ROBBERY CHARGE

From Sunday's Daily Sun:

Justice Howard, the negro who was arrested in connection with the first report of the larceny of money from the Express company's safe on the T. & J. Railway on Thursday and acquitted for lack of evidence, was rearrested Saturday shortly after his preliminary hearing upon a charge of having stolen $341.65 from the safe, instead of the amount at first reported.

Messenger Crouch made the still further discovery of missing money sometime during Saturday morning, and came here and had the warrant issued for him shortly following the first trial.

There has been only $2 of the missing money discovered, and it is very probable that the negro has it buried along the railway somewhere, or hid in the coach that is used on this run.

Conductor Crouch has been on this run for many years and was for a long while the messenger on the run. He has recently, however, held down the position of conductor in connection with the messenger's job, and this is his first experience in missing funds.

He believes that he will eventually locate some of the missing money, and will use every effort to have the negro divulge the secret as to where he has placed the amount, all of which was taken from the safe on the T. & J. Railway at the time.

Capt. Edgell Here.

From Friday's Daily Sun:

Capt. A. B. Edgell of Alachua was a welcome visitor to The Sun office yesterday. He is a native of Vermont, but has been a resident of this county for nearly forty years, and is what the natives term an "Old Timer." Capt. Edgell was for years the leading merchant of Old Newnansville in its palmy days, and is still engaged in business in that section, but only on a small scale—just enough to keep his mind occupied. He has not been North for eight years now, and says that he finds his Florida home much more comfortable in the summer time than it is in Vermont.

DIES FROM INJURIES.

Kicked by a Horse on Last Monday, June 21st.

Harmon Hines, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Willey Hines of Wilford, was kicked and seriously injured on last Monday by a horse, and died from the effects of the same on Thursday.

He was a very popular young lad and the community and friends generally deeply sympathize with the family in their sad hour of grief. The remains were laid to rest at Mount-ten Cemetery, a large number of friends and relatives following the remains to their last resting place.
